

CHARLOTTESVILLE-ALBEMARLE RESCUE SQUAD

STANDARD OPERATING GUIDELINE

TOPIC: Technical Rescue Team Capt Responsibilities	S.O.G. # 1.5e
Approved by: Lair D. Haugh, Chief	Revised: 1/8/2008 Approved: 1/8/2008

Position

The Technical Rescue Team – Captain is directly responsible to the Deputy Chief of Special Operations and is in charge of training, acquisition of new equipment and repair/maintenance of all technical & heavy rescue equipment and the collapse trailer.

Duties and Responsibilities

Responsible for record keeping and maintenance of all technical rescue equipment.

Responsible for planning and implementation of the FTX program.

Responsible for technical rescue training including training meetings and upkeep of all member's skills.

Responsible for upgrades for technical rescue equipment and SCBA equipment.

Recruits potential members in and out of the organization.

Organizes and oversees the technical rescue awareness lecture program.

Review and update related SOP's on a yearly basis.

Ensure required testing of SCBA bottles.

Make & document 3 month checks of all air monitoring equipment.

Replace all batteries on a yearly schedule.